We are in a _____

The devil: Who he is

Our adversary ("Satan" means adversary)

A fallen angel (Ezekiel 28:11-19)

Intrinsically evil (John 17:15)

Controller of the world system (2 Corinthians 4:4)

Accuser of Christians (Revelation 12:10)

Liar (John 8:44)

Murderer (John 8:44)

The devil: Who he is NOT

Satan is not an "evil equal" of Jesus.

Satan is not invincible.

The devil's goal is to _____

The Devil cannot deprive God of glory in heaven, but he can keep God from having His rightful glory ascribed to Him by people on earth. He does this by keeping them blind to God's true character and to His purpose in creating and re-creating them and by keeping them ignorant of the power which is available to them to achieve that purpose. And when some of the people on earth do seek the Lord and try to walk in his ways, Satan can at least keep them from living in a manner that is "for the praise of his glory." The key in either case is to get them to live self-centered rather than God-centered lives, and to buy into his lies about life...

~ Spiritual Warfare, by Timothy Warner. Crossway Books, 1991, p. 22.

Although all legal claim of Satan against us was cancelled at the cross, a believer's wilful indulgence in fleshly sins gives the enemy a place or a claim against us which he will be quick to exploit.

~ The Adversary, by Mark Bubeck. Moody Press, 1975, p. 34.)
