

<sup>2</sup>But as for you, promote the kind of living that reflects right teaching. <sup>2</sup>Teach the older men to exercise self-control, to be worthy of respect, and to live wisely. They must have strong faith and be filled with love and patience.

<sup>3</sup>Similarly, teach the older women to live in a way that is appropriate for someone serving the Lord. They must not go around speaking evil of others and must not be heavy drinkers. Instead, they should teach others what is good. <sup>4</sup>These older women must train the younger women to love their husbands and their children, <sup>5</sup>to live wisely and be pure, to take care of their homes, to do good, and to be submissive to their husbands. Then they will not bring shame on the word of God.

<sup>6</sup>In the same way, encourage the young men to live wisely in all they do. <sup>7</sup>And you yourself must be an example to them by doing good deeds of every kind. Let everything you do reflect the integrity and seriousness of your teaching. <sup>8</sup>Let your teaching be so correct that it can't be criticized. Then those who want to argue will be ashamed because they won't have anything bad to say about us.

<sup>9</sup>Slaves must obey their masters and do their best to please them. They must not talk back <sup>10</sup>or steal, but they must show themselves to be entirely trustworthy and good. Then they will make the teaching about God our Savior attractive in every way. Titus 2:1-10 (NLT)

Discipleship is not limited to “Bible and church” matters!

We are all older than some and younger than others. We must all be involved in the discipleship process as disciplers and disciples!

I do, you watch
I do, you help
You do, I help
You do, I watch

When asked what to consider in mentoring another person, Howard Hendricks responded that He’s ask these three things of them...

1. What is it you want?
2. What are you willing to pay?
3. What is your schedule?

TWO QUESTIONS...

1. CAN YOU SAY, “*Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me--put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you (PHIL 4:9),” TO OTHERS?
IF NOT, WHAT MUST YOU CHANGE?

2. WHO ARE YOU DISCIPLING RIGHT NOW?
